

Teacher Education Bursary – Post-16 and Further Education PGCE 2021/22

This training bursary is a financial incentive provided by the Department for Education and administered by Sheffield Hallam University.

The Department for Education has limited the availability of these bursaries. Meeting the eligibility criteria is no guarantee that you will receive a bursary.

How much is available?

The bursary amount varies according to the subject in which you are training to teach and your degree classification.

Subject	Bursaries
Maths Science (Biology, Chemistry and/or Physics) Engineering (and/or Manufacturing) Computing	£26,000
SEND (Special Education Needs and Disabilities)	£15,000

This means that EU nationals, resident in the UK before the end of the transition period on 31st December 2020, and who qualify for pre-settled status or settled status under the EU Settlement Scheme, will continue to be eligible for home fee status and student financial support on a similar basis to Home students, subject to meeting the usual residence requirements.
    - Isle of Man, Jersey and Guernsey - Trainees from the Isle of Man, Jersey and Guernsey may not meet one of the definitions above. However, they may still be eligible for support from their respective home education departments and, where this is the case, they will still be eligible for a training bursary on the basis that they meet all other criteria.

  - promptly informing us if you intend to withdraw from the course,
  - signing a declaration of understanding that you are expected to seek an FE teaching post in England on successful completion of your course.

How are applications assessed?

Eligible students are identified by the College and their details are passed onto the Student Funding team. Student Funding apply to the Department for Education for bursaries for the nominated students. When the bursaries are approved, Student Funding request that the students complete a bursary claim form. On receipt of the form, and once the student is fully enrolled, we will check that the Department for Education's full eligibility criteria for the award is met.

What else do I need to know?

- Bursary payments can only begin once you are fully enrolled and your degree classification has been confirmed. If you aren't fully enrolled in October, your appropriate bursary amount will be rolled over into your November payment (or to the month that you become fully enrolled)
- Bursaries are not taxable; however, they may be treated as capital income for the purposes of income assessment if you receive state benefits
- This is a pre-service bursary. If you undertake paid teaching work in a school or institution, you may become ineligible to receive the training bursary from the date you start this work
- The bursary is not a salary paid in arrears – it is a financial incentive, with a payment schedule set by the Department for Education
- Should you withdraw from, or cease to engage with the course, you would be entitled to the training bursary for each month up to and including, the month in which you withdraw. We would seek to recover any overpayment of bursary from you
- If you leave and then re-join your course, you will normally only be eligible to receive the remainder of the bursary awarded in the year you started the course
- If you leave your course and join a new one with no transfer of standing or credit from the previous course and are being charged a new tuition fee, you will be entitled to receive a new bursary. However, if you have already received a full bursary award on the previous route, you would not be eligible for another bursary

- The training bursary awards are relevant to the academic year of study and can change from year to year
