

Performance Athlete Support Program (PASP)

2026/27

All successful applicants within the Sheffield Hallam University Performance Athlete Support Program (PASP) are subject to the terms and conditions in this document.

If these conditions are not met, at any time, Sport Hallam reserves the right to:

- Withdraw a place on this program.
- Withhold funding.
- Revoke access to facilities and resources.
- Pursue further disciplinary action if necessary.

General Conditions:

- Upon confirmation of successful admittance to the programme (including where applicable, the associated scholarship) the following statements must be true:
 1. You are fully enrolled onto a program of study at Sheffield Hallam University for the current academic year.
 2. You are a high performing athlete who continues with your sport alongside your studies.
- All athletes must abide by the Sheffield Hallam University & Club Code of Conduct
- All athletes must fully abide by any club rules, codes of conduct, or other behavioural codes set out by their Sport Hallam Club and / or their National Governing Body.
- All student athletes must abide by UK Anti Doping Regulations

Data Sharing:

- Sport Hallam may share personal information regarding the athlete within the multidisciplinary team (coaches, strength and conditioning staff, physios, nutritionists, psychologist, lifestyle practitioner, performance sports coordinator) with the aim of supporting the athlete and to access services.
- The University may share reports and publicity material internally and with stakeholders or press that include details such as name and course of study, sporting achievements and updates on your academic progress.

Funding (If in receipt of a Scholarship):

- Requests for bank details must be met to receive payment. Failure to complete a bank details form upon request will lead to delays in the payment of your scholarship and ultimately may lead to the offer of a scholarship being removed.
- Scholarships will be paid for one academic year only.
- Payments will be withheld if the terms in this document are not met.

If you have any questions please contact performancesport@shu.ac.uk and your question will be directed to a member of the Performance Sport Team.
